

CAMP CABLE - READY TO RACE

CABLE BAY x TENNESSEE LA BELLE (by SoYouThink)

Look at Camp Cable today on the cusp of his racing career! While he impressed as a yearling, Camp Cable has grown into the impressive racehorse he was always going to be, and we believe is now only months away from winning his first race.

He ticks all the boxes. Great family, great trainer and just weeks away from going to the races. This is the opportunity you've been looking forward to. Don't miss this chance!

Camp Cable has winners all over his family. Cable Bay has produced some sensational horses with Uncommon James, the first of his Group 1 winning offspring in Australia, has won $1.4 million in prize money already.

Think on it. Flying Missile has banked more than $500,000 and not far behind is Beour Bay winning some $290,000. Close relative and stable mate, Electric Impulse has earned some $160,000 with more winnings to come.

And let's not forget Camp Cable's half-sister, Supido Beauty with four wins to her name and all set to come back into training.

Having completed a prep at Denistoun Park, Camp Cable has started with Henry Dwyer, who delighted us with speed machine Asfoora, ripping past the field to claim the King Charles III Stakes and a massive win at Royal Ascot earlier this year.

Henry was happy to accept Camp Cable into his elite stable complex at Ballarat, having already trained Electric Impulse to four wins with many more to come.

But just look at Camp Cable. Have you ever seen a better-looking racehorse and only months away from his first race. We are all confident we will soon see him in the winner's circle. Will you be with him?

While Cable Bay's Australian progeny are small in number, making them an exclusive band of thoroughbreds, they are a bit like French champagne - something very special to be enjoyed by a select few.

As a Group 1 winning racehorse, Cable Bay was known as being a tough and consistent winner and now, is developing renown as a proven sire of high-class European sprinters, including Dragon Symbol and Liberty Beach.

This gelding is likely to show the same turn of foot. He is a member of one of Australia's speediest families and the fourth foal for the unraced Tennessee La Belle, member of the well-respected 'Tennessee' band of mares.

More, she is the daughter of the globe-trotting superstar, So You Think... himself the sire of 44 stakes winners and the broodmare sire of this year's Gr.1 Golden Slipper Stakes winner, Fireburn.
